Farmingville, NY – On October 1, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) and State Senator Tom Croci (left) attended the Davis Park Fire Department's Annual Inspection and Installation Dinner held at the Snapper Inn in Oakdale. During the event, which commemorated the Department's 60th Anniversary, Supervisor Romaine honored the outgoing Chief Martin Bodkin (center), as well as the incoming Chief Salvatore Cannella, outgoing Fire Commissioner Jonathon Brown and former Chief/Commissioner Garrett Anger for his 50 years of service.

The all-volunteer Fire Island Fire Department was established in 1956 and provides fire, rescue and emergency medical services to the barrier beach communities of Davis Park and Ocean Ridge.
